

DAF YOMI 4 KIDS

A מְדוּת Moment

Inside The Daf

When the בְּנֵי יִשְׂרָאֵל (Children of Israel) were in the desert, a special ceremony took place for the first seven days that the עֲבוּדָה (Service) was performed in the מִשְׁכָּן (Tabernacle). These days were called the "שִׁבְעַת יְמֵי הַמְלוּאִים" ("Seven Days of Filling.")

During this time, many קִרְבָּנוֹת (sacrifices) were offered and the כֹּהֲנִים who would serve in the מִשְׁכָּן were anointed with oil.

According to רַבֵּי יוֹחֵן, if the following things were not done during מְלוּאִים, the קִרְבָּן (sacrifice) being offered was not accepted:

סְמִיכָה - Leaning

The animal's owner has to lean with all his might on the head of his sacrifice.

תְּנוּפָה - Waving

The chest and the right hind leg of a קִרְבָּן שְׁלָמִים are held by their owner, while the כֹּהֵן places his hands underneath. They are then waved in four directions and presented as a gift to a כֹּהֵן.

פְּרִישַׁת שִׁבְעָה - Separating for Seven Days

The כֹּהֵן גָּדוֹל (אֶהָרֹן) had to separate himself for the seven days of the מְלוּאִים. He would serve on the eighth day.

רְבוּי בְּגָדִים - Extra Clothing

Every כֹּהֵן has four special pieces of clothing to wear while performing the עֲבוּדָה. The כֹּהֵן גָּדוֹל wears four extra clothes.

"Yaakov! Wake up and get dressed, it's time to daven!"

"But I am dressed...kind of," Yaakov said to his father.

"Yaakov," his father laughed, "you are wearing your pajamas! You shouldn't daven in your pajamas."

"Why not?" his son asked.

"Yaakov, we learn that the כֹּהֲנִים wore special clothes when they performed the עֲבוּדָה (service) in the מִשְׁכָּן. Did you ever wonder why they needed special clothes? Well, one reason was out of respect to their holy job, and to the מִשְׁכָּן itself. We learn from them that we also have to dress respectfully when we perform our special עֲבוּדָה – praying to Hashem."

"Wow," Yaakov said, "I see what you mean. I have to show respect to Hashem by dressing properly. Could you please leave my room now?"

"Why, Yaakov?"

"I've got to get dressed!"

Dressing-Up

There is a dispute between רבי יוחנן and ר' חייא regarding the order in which אהרן and his sons dressed משה and then his sons.

According to the second opinion משה dressed them all at the same time.

The גמרא asks about the future, in the times of משיח, how will אהרן and his sons dress then? The גמרא answers that in the future we will be able to ask משה, אהרן, and his sons how to properly don the Priestly garments because they will come back to life.

Did You Know...

The belief that the dead will come back to life (תחיית המתים) is one of the most important beliefs of the Jewish faith!
